Our Mission

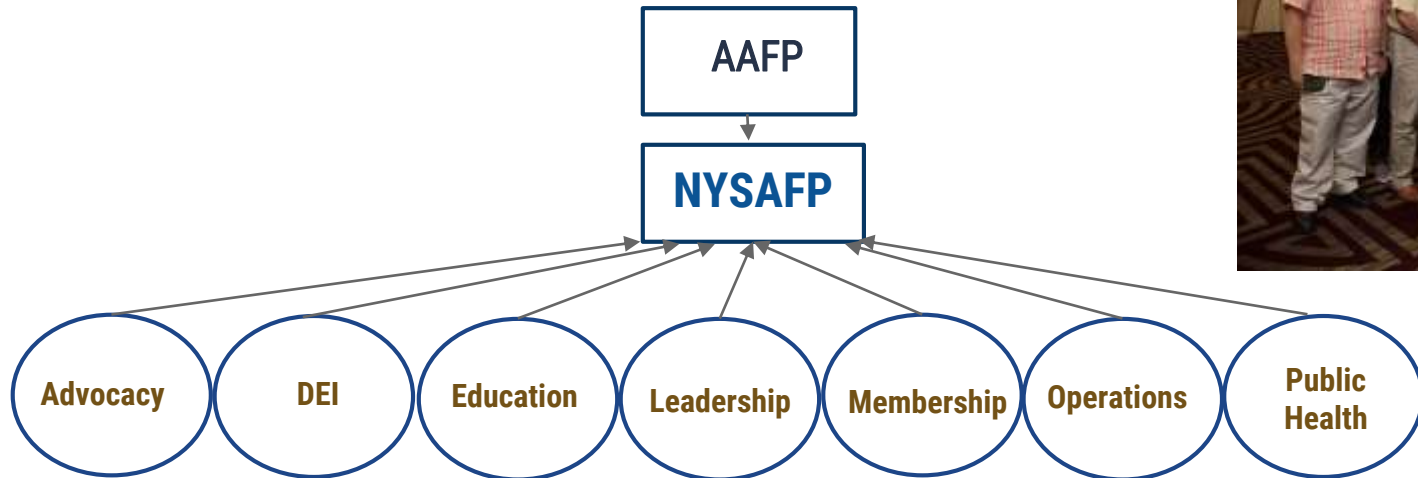

"Guided by principles of inclusivity and community, the NYSAFP empowers family physicians, residents, and students to lead through advocacy, education, and mentorship to improve the lives of our members and our patients."

What Makes Up the NYSAFP?

There are seven commissions (or branches) of the NYSAFP: Advocacy, DEI, Education, Leadership, Membership, Operations, and Public Health

Congress of Delegates

The Congress of Delegates sets policy for the NYSAFP

Congress of Delegates - Examples of Previous Student and Resident Resolutions

- Increase Awareness of School-based Vaccination Rates
- Remove Salt from FDA GRAS Status
- Elimination of Advertising for Baby Formula in Hospitals
- Prohibiting Use of Possession of Condoms as Evidence in an Arrest for Prostitution

Congress of Delegates

Examples of Other Resolutions

- Promoting Single Payer Health Care
- Removal of Non Medical Vaccine Exemptions
- Increased Access to Addiction Treatment
- Ensuring Reproductive Health Rights Including Access to Contraception

Residency Chapters

Residency programs in New York State can apply to be resident chapters

At least five residents in the program who are NYSAFP members must sign the application

Residency chapters can send a delegate and an alternate to the Congress of Delegates

Student and Resident Delegates

Students and residents each elect their representatives to the NYSAFP Board of Directors

Four students and four residents are on the Board:
Consisting of upstate and downstate Delegates and Alternates

Student elections are held in the spring; Resident elections are held during Congress of Delegates

More on NYSAFP Commissions

Each commission has at least two resident members and two student members

You may apply for a commission appointment; check our website for due dates

Commissions meet three times a year; virtually and in person

How to Join the NYSAFP

■ <https://www.aafp.org/membership/join.html>

AAFP membership is unified, which means that members are required to belong to the national AAFP and to their appropriate state chapter. Becoming a member with the AAFP, automatically makes you a member at NYSAFP!

Student membership is FREE!

(IMG membership is only at the National level.)
